A part of history – a legacy of innovation

Swans has been the beating heart of engineering and innovation in Tyneside since the nineteenth century. Subsequent mergers later and the name Swan Hunter is world renowned. Today that legacy lives on at the Wallsend West Yard with modern offices and suites for all businesses. Providing over 1,500 sqm of space including superfast broadband, and staffed reception, meeting and conferencing facilities, Swans Centre for Innovation provides an exciting opportunity.

Location

Wallsend is situated in the borough of North Tyneside approximately 3.5 miles east of Newcastle City Centre in the North East of England. It benefits from good public transport infrastructure with local bus routes and the Tyne and Wear Metro connecting it with the rest of the region. It also has access to major road networks via the A19 dual carriageway linking to the Tyne Tunnel southbound and the A1 to the north.

Swans is located at the south of Station Road in the heart of Wallsend. The Tyne Tunnel is less than a five-minute drive, and the A19 and A1058 Coast Road into Newcastle City Centre are within easy reach. Wallsend metro station is a few minutes' walk away, offering access for staff and visitors.
